About Citywide

A Key Asset

Established in 1983, Citywide specializes in direct placement of: Administrative, Accounting, Medical, Legal, Technical, Management, Finance, Marketing, Customer Service, Human Resources.

With extensive recruiting and placement experience, Citywide helps you find and hire your most valuable asset: talented people. Locally based and independently owned, Citywide measures success by our high percentage of repeat clients and successfully completed placements.

Confidentiality, Integrity, Trust

Citywide's goal is to serve as an effective, trustworthy, and discreet liaison between you and your potential employee. Rest assured that the professionals at Citywide thoroughly understand the recruitment, interview, and negotiation process, and abide by a stringent code of ethics in all dealings.

We Work for You

Making an Excellent Match

Citywide's recruitment specialists devote themselves to understanding your company's culture, personality, and organizational style, then presenting only candidates who will fit smoothly and comfortably into your company. An additional service Citywide can perform is a background investigation for select individuals. We also offer a unique personality assessment to help determine a candidate's "fit" for your company and the available position.

The Best Ones are Already Taken

An artfully presented professional opportunity can get results even from candidates not actively pursuing new employment. Citywide's recruitment specialists make use of an extensive pool of knowledge and experience to recruit and evaluate the talent that will help your company succeed.

Guarantee

Our job's not done until you are satisfied. We formally guarantee each and every candidate placed through Citywide Search Associates. We're sure you'll approve of the guarantee, which is stated on the fee schedule.

Recruiting services are offered on a contingency fee basis; refer to our fee schedule for more information.
